

Dr. Agus B. Irawan, SE.,Ak., MBA., Ph.D.

Agus Bambang Irawan, Ph.D is a senior auditor at BPK RI and lecturer at MBA program Atma Jaya Catholic University of Indonesia, Jakarta. He holds Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D) degree from Flinders University – Australia under Australian Leadership Awards (ALA – AUSAID) scholarship. He obtained Master of Business Administration (MBA) majoring in Fund Management and Treasury from Monash University – Australia under ADS – AUSAID scholarship and Bachelor degree in Economic (Accounting) from Brawijaya University – Indonesia through the BPK – World Bank Scholarship. He also gained Diploma degree on Accounting from State College of Accountancy (STAN) Jakarta.

He qualified in professional certifications such as Certified Management Accountant (CMA) Australia, Certified Knowledge Management (CKM) Switzerland and Chartered Accountant (CA) Indonesia.

He also serves as editorial board of Jurnal Tata Kelola Keuangan Negara and involved as an international reviewer for Journal of Sustainability (Scopus Indexed), Switzerland. His works are published in System Research and Behavioural Science journal, West East Social Science journal, Journal of Contemporary Management Sciences, Jurnal Lintasan Ekonomi, and Jurnal Akuntansi & Management. His research has been presented in international conferences in Malaysia and Singapore.

He has attended some comparatives studies on public sector auditing such as at Algemene Rekenkamer – the Netherlands, The Cour des Comptes – France and the Bundesrechnungshof – Germany. In 2016, he attended the Balanced Scorecard for the Public Sector course at Maastricht school of Management (MSM) in the Netherlands.

His research interests are in the area accounting, finance, management, performance auditing, knowledge management, public policy & administration, and systems thinking.

Email: agusbhie@yahoo.com